GET GROWING!

FOUNDER

For the past three years, The Get Growing Foundation (GGF) has been at the cornerstone of The Chicago Flower & Garden Show® bringing education and year-round programming to the event. Due to COVID-19, the Show was canceled just days before it was set to open, but its programs and education continue to live on through GGF. As a stand-alone 501(c)3 nonprofit, GGF has a mission to inspire, educate, and motivate the next generation of gardeners through community outreach and education, experience based learning, and horticultural job skills training and placement. The need to cultivate our communities remains of paramount importance—and GGF is committed to bringing green to those in need.

Through December 31, Chicago’s beloved holiday tradition celebrates its first-ever virtual Christkindlmarket “Home for the Holidays,” featuring an online marketplace, family-friendly events, and fun interactive activities.

From the comfort of their homes, visitors from around the nation can shop authentic Christkindlmarket products from 47 of their favorite vendors, including ornaments, artisan merchandise and Glühwein (hot spiced wine), as well as sweets and treats from Germany and beyond. Christkindlmarket fans can also purchase traditional Rüschel and special limited-edition gift box sets, featuring German holiday favorites and “must-haves.”

Participate virtually in German cooking demonstrations, Trivia, Christkind Story Time, and a daily Advent Calendar from December 1 - December 24. Those young and young at heart can download free coloring pages, riddles, and a website scavenger hunt. Keep the tradition alive at home!

Greater Chatham Initiative / jay@jmerekamoline.com

GCI is a nonprofit, and our mission is to make sure the four African American mid-south side neighborhoods—Avalon Park, Auburn Gresham, Chatham, and Greater Grand Crossing—continue to be areas of choice and opportunity. We celebrate the people and places in our 110,000 person 12-square mile locale that has in the past and present made Greater Chatham a “State of Mind,” through its business, industry, and creative notables, including the following persons who will be highlighted in our display: Thomas Dorsey, who invented gospel music; Mahalia Jackson, the King of Gospel, and Emmy winner Chance the Rapper.

Greater Roseland Chamber of Commerce (GRCC) / special service area #71 / jay@jmerekamoline.com

GRCC is a Neighborhood Business Development Center (NBDC) and a local resource for our businesses. We provide technical assistance programs to educate aspiring entrepreneurs and existing businesses. Our programs are designed to strengthen and promote economic growth, prosperity, and stability.

Our "inch wide, mile deep" approach engages each person who steps foot on our Peace Campus comprehensively to stop violence before it starts.

Little Village Chamber of Commerce (LVCC) / littlevillagechamber.org
